Here's another Friday Fun Day project for you! This stand-alone ladybug tri-fold gift card holder is simple to make when giving a gift card. The gift card holder uses the 2022-2024 In Color 6" x 6" Designer Series Paper along with the Hello Ladybug Bundle (stamps and punch).

1. Card Cuts:

- Gift Card Holder Base - Cut 1 Pacific Point cardstock to 10-1/2" x 4", score at 7-1/16" and 3-1/2"
- Outside Panels - Cut 3 DSP panels from the 2022-2024 In Color DSP pack using the Tahitian Tide color
- Inside Pocket for Gift Card - Cut 1 3-1/4" x 2-1/2" DSP in Tahitian Tide
- Cut 2 11" lengths of white Crinkled Seam Binding Ribbon
- Scrap of Parakeet Party cardstock for leaf
- Scraps of white and Pacific Point cardstock for ladybug

2. Glue 3 sides of the Inside Pocket and adhere on the center panel on the inside of the gift card holder. Keep the glue line close to the edge of the DSP. Leave the top of the panel unglued.

4. Adhere the DSP panels onto the front, or outside, of the gift card holder base. Note that I used the dotted pattern for the outside and the plaid pattern of the DSP for the card holder on the inside. Note: Be sure to apply plenty of glue to the middle sections of the DSP where it will overlap the ribbon in order to firmly secure the ribbon.
5. Using the large leaf image from the Hello Ladybug stamp set, stamp the leaf in Parakeet Party ink onto Parakeet Party cardstock and fussy cut the image, then stamp the sentiment onto the leaf using Tuxedo Black Memento ink.
6. Stamp the ladybug spots in Pacific Point ink onto a scrap of white cardstock then use the Ladybug Builder punch to punch out the wings. Punch out the ladybug body from a scrap of Pacific Point cardstock using the same punch. Adhere the wings to the ladybug body using glue.
7. Using the 3-flower image from the Hello Ladybug stamp set, stamp the flowers in the upper left and lower right corners of the card holder front panel.
8. Adhere the leaf and ladybug to the card holder front using Stampin' Dimensionals.
9. Insert gift card, fold card holder up and tie a bow to close the tri-fold.

The project is complete! You can switch up the DSP and colors to suit the recipient and decorate the front as appropriate. These would be great stocking stuffers at Christmas time!

Products used to make this project are included on the next page.
