2. Start off by using the Gingham Embossing Folder and emboss one of the Basic White panels. Using a blending brush, lightly blend Old Olive ink over the surface of the embossed panel, concentrating the ink towards the upper left corner of the panel. Adhere this panel to one of the Fresh Freesia mats.
3. Using a length of Fresh Freesia Open Weave Ribbon, wrap the ribbon around the embossed panel, securing the ends to the back of the panel using Mini Glue Dots. Position the ribbon approximately a 1/2" from the top of the panel.
4. Using the Wisteria Dies set, die cut 2 of the branch/leaves from Basic White cardstock. Use Stampin' Blends in Crumb Cake to color in the branches and use Old Olive to color in the leaves. For the leaves, color all leaves using the light shade of Old Olive, then come back with the darker shade to darken the leaves that would be in shadow. Blend with the lighter shade of Old Olive.
5. Using the Wisteria Dies set, die cut 2 of the single larger wisteria blooms in Highland Heather cardstock. Die cut 2 of the single smaller wisteria blooms in Fresh Freesia cardstock. Optional: Use Stampin' Blends in Fresh Freesia and Highland Heather to darken the bottoms of the blooms on the die cuts. Adhere the Fresh Freesia blooms to the Highland Heather blooms.
6. Adhere the branches/leaf units to the top of the embossed panel then adhere the wisteria blooms to the branch stems.
7. Stamp the sentiment "Happy Birthday" from the Cottage Rose Stamp Set onto the white sentiment label using Highland Heather ink. Adhere the sentiment label to its mat, then adhere the sentiment label to the lower right corner of the embossed panel using Stampin' Dimensionals. The sentiment label will sit over top of the wisteria bloom on the right.
8. Tie a bow using the Fresh Freesia Open Weave Ribbon and adhere the bow to the card front in the upper left corner, just above the wisteria bloom using a Mini Glue Dot. Adhere an Iridescent Pearls Basic Jewel on each side of the sentiment on the card front and add an additional pearl to the upper right of the card front.
9. On the inside white panel, use the 3-wisteria bloom image and stamp in Fresh Freesia ink in the upper right corner of the panel. I only partially stamped this image. Using the small leaf image from the Wisteria Wishes Stamp Set, stamp the leaf to the left of the wisteria blooms you just stamped using Old Olive ink. Using the same leaf image, stamp again twice in the upper left corner of the panel. Stamp the sentiment "You are positively the greatest" from the Cottage Rose Stamp Set on the inside white panel in Highland Heather ink. Adhere the white panel to its Fresh Freesia mat, then adhere this unit to the inside of the card.
10. Using the blending brush that you used to blend Old Olive ink onto the embossed panel. Without re-inking, blend Old Olive ink onto the lower right front of the envelope and the envelope flap. On the envelope front, use the branch/leaf stamp and partially stamp using Old Olive ink. Use the 3-wisteria bloom stamp and partially stamp the blooms onto the envelope front in Fresh Freesia ink, lining up the blossoms with their stems. Come back with the single wisteria bloom stamp and stamp over the Fresh Freesia blooms using Highland Heather ink.

11. Use the same stamps and colors as in Step #10 above. Fully open the envelope and lay a scratch piece of paper over the envelope front to protect it. Stamp the brand/leaf image in Old Olive ink onto the envelope flap. Stamp the 3-wisteria blooms image in Fresh Freesia ink, then come back with the single wisteria bloom stamp and stamp over the Fresh Freesia blooms using Highland Heather ink.

This completes the card! The Fresh Freesia and Highland Heather are perfect together with the touches of Old Olive and the beautiful images from the Wisteria Wishes Bundle make a beautiful feminine card! I hope you give it a try!
