I'm back with another cute card made with the Adorable Owls Stamp Set! You can earn this sweet stamp set during Sale-A-Bration with a qualifying order. I used ink blending on this card along with the tree branch from the Garden Birdhouses Stamp Set. Let's get started!

1. Card Cuts:

- Card Base - Cut 1 Daffodil Delight cardstock to 8-1/2" x 5-1/2", score at 4-1/4"
- Mats - Cut 1 Basic Black cardstock to 5-1/4" x 4"
- Panel - Cut 2 Basic White cardstock to 5-1/8" x 3-7/8"
- Mask for ink blending Moon - Cut 1 piece of masking paper or cardstock to 5-1/8" x 3-7/8" (same size as white panel)
- Sentiment Label - Cut 1 Basic White cardstock to approximately 1-3/4" x 1-3/4"

2. Start off by taking the mask panel measuring 5-1/8" x 3-7/8" and using the second to largest die from the Layering Circles Dies, position the die towards the top of the panel and slightly to the right. I left about a 1/2" between the edge of the panel and the die on the top and right. Die cut the panel. Important: Save the circle that was die cut from the mask panel for later!

3. Temporarily adhere the die cut mask panel to one of the white panels. I used Post It tape to secure the panels together. Using a blending brush, blend Daffodil Delight ink in the circle area of the mask. This is the moon! Remove the mask from the panel.
4. Using the circle that was die cut from the mask panel, temporarily adhere the circle over the moon you just ink blended. Using a different blending brush, blend Orchid Oasis ink over the entire panel surface being careful to keep the moon covered with the circle. Remove the temporarily adhered circle. Using the blending brush, slightly darken the moon in areas with Orchid Oasis ink. This gives some suggested crater shadows to the moon.
5. From the Garden Birdhouses Stamp Set, stamp the tree branch in Tuxedo Black Memento ink onto the ink blended panel. I stamped the branch so that it was partially over the moon.
6. On a scrap piece of white cardstock, stamp the flying owl using Soft Suede ink. Color the owl using the light and dark shades of Crumb Cake Stampin' Blends. Color the owl's eyes using a Granny Apple Green Stampin' Blend. Color the owl's beak and feet using a Pumpkin Pie Stampin' Blend. Fussy cut the owl.
7. Adhere the ink blended mat to one of the Basic Black mats, then adhere this unit to the card front.
8. Stamp the sentiment "It's your day" from the Adorable Owls Stamp Set in Memento ink. Using the second to smallest circle from the Layering Circles Dies set, cut out the sentiment.
9. Adhere the owl to the card front using Stampin' Dimensionals. Position the owl on the left side of the card, just above the tree branch and partially overlapping the moon.
10. Adhere the sentiment label to the card front using Stampin' Dimensionals and position in the lower right corner of the card front. Using a length of Gingham Ribbon to tie a bow and adhere the bow above the sentiment label using a Mini Glue Dot. Add several Adhesive-backed Milky Dots around the moon to mimic stars. Rhinestones would also work well!
11. On the Inside Panel, stamp the tree branch in the lower left corner and color in the leaves using a Granny Apple Green Stampin' Blend. Stamp the flying owl above the tree branch using Soft Suede ink, and color the owl like you did in Step #6 using Stampin' Blends. Stamp these same elements onto the lower left of the envelope front and color using Stampin' Blends. Adhere the Inside Panel to the Basic Black mat, then adhere this unit to the inside of the card.

This completes the card! I can't get enough of these fun little owls. The sentiment on this card can lend itself to a birthday card, a celebration card, or congratulations card!
